

Official Program HUNT BROTHERS CIRCUS Season of 1954

DISPLAY NO. 1 The grand, glittering, glorious opening spectacle "The Circus On Parade," introducing the performers and animals of Hunt Bros. Circus in a colorful introduction. (Please keep of the hippodrome track during this number.)

DISPLAY NO. 2 Petite, prancing ponies from the Hunt Bros. stables, presented in all three rings.

Ring 1	Center Ring	Ring 3
Charles Hunt, Jr.	Welby Cook	Edward Hunt

DISPLAY NO. 3 An aerial ballet of graceful performers, high aloft under the billowing canvas.

Ring 1	Center Ring	Ring 3
Millie Mae Hunt	Lois Stanley	Mildred Hunt
Swinging Ladder	Neck Loop	Swinging Ladder

DISPLAY NO. 4 Introducing for their first appearance, those merry mirthmakers, the Hunt Bros. clowns with a deluge of dizzy doings.

DISPLAY NO. 5 An amazing display of athletic and gymnastic prowess in the center ring, presenting the Boundo Brothers in their unique and unusual combination of casting and trampoline feats. A new feature of the 1954 program.

DISPLAY NO. 6 Presenting three of the baby elephants from the Hunt Bros. herd of seven, and featuring Miss Marsha Hunt, the world's youngest elephant trainer.

Ring 1	Center Ring	Ring 3
Capt. Roy Bush	Miss Marsha Hunt	Capt. Eddy
	and her jungle pet Rahnee

DISPLAY NO. 7 Another new feature of the 1954 program, built for laughing purposes only. One of the outstanding comedy attractions in America today. Presenting, in the center ring, Happy Spitzer with his talented, but stubborn mule, Frances. Hold on to your sides.

DISPLAY NO. 8 A delightful display of doggy doings in all three rings.

Ring 1	Center Ring	Ring 3
Bonnie's "Dog-gone good dogs"	Rae Sinclair's Canine Stars	Stanley's Clever Canines

DISPLAY NO. 9 The program takes to the air again with talented and daring performers again aloft under the dome of the big top.

Ring 1	Center Ring	Ring 3
Aggie Arey	Ramon, the daring young man	Helene Devoe
Web	on the flying trapeze	Web

DISPLAY NO. 10 Directing your attention to a dazzling demonstration of balancing skills.

Ring 1	Center Ring	Ring 3
Eddie Hunt	Millie Mae and Diane	Hazel Case
Rolling globe	Rolla-rolla	Rolling globe

DISPLAY NO. 11 Once more the rings and hippodrome track are taken over by the Hunt Bros. Circus clowns with their mirthquakes of merriment. A sure cure for the blues!

DISPLAY NO. 12 In the center ring, one of the outstanding features of the 1954 program of Hunt Bros. Circus. Proudly presenting Phil and Bonnie-Bonta in their daring and breath taking high perch act. A South American importation.

DISPLAY NO. 13 First introduction of TANIT IKAO, world renowned Hindu mystic, the most unusual exhibition that you have ever witnessed, and the feature of the concert or after-show for the 1954 season. Once seen, you will never forget this most unusual performer who brings with her the mysteries of the Far East.

DISPLAY NO. 14 Three rings full of top flight artists showing their skills simultaneously.

Ring 1	Center Ring	Ring 3
Don Phillips & Co.	Diane and Louis Arley	Margey Spitzer
Unicyclist and juggler	The acme of perfection in balance	Combining skill on wheels and juggling

DISPLAY NO. 15 In the center ring, presenting the famous palamino liberty horses from the Hunt Bros. Circus stables, in their intricate manouvers and precision performances. The peak of equine perfection, directed by Charles T. Hunt, Jr.

DISPLAY NO. 16 Hold onto your funny-bone, here come those funny fellows again, the Hunt Bros. clown contingent, bringing with them a new bag of tricks designed to make you shake with mirth.

DISPLAY NO. 17 Three rings full of the finest performers upon the wire that could be found.

Ring 1	Center Ring	Ring 3
Hazel and Marvin Case	Don Francisco	Bob Stanley in
King and Queen of the	Sensational star	"A bit too much"
silver strand	of the tight wire	on the slack wire

DISPLAY NO. 18 If you've caught your breath, prepare for more merriment, for here come the funmakers again.

DISPLAY NO. 19 Presenting one of the highlights of the 1954 program of Hunt Bros. Circus, Mlle. Gabriel and her wonder horse "Silhouette," a recent importation from Europe. This is without doubt the outstanding act of its kind in America today combining grace and beauty with the acme of perfection in horse training. All eyes on the center ring!

DISPLAY NO. 20 Second concert announcement, again presenting TANIT IKAO, world renowned Hindu mystic and her company. Get your tickets now to see this amazing performance immediately following the big show.

DISPLAY NO. 21 Two of the most outstanding acts in the circus world today.

Ring 1	Ring 3
Louis and The Oliver Sisters in a	The Amazing Monohans
daringly different display of balance.	Presenting an act which combines the teeterboard and risley.

DISPLAY NO. 22 Here come the elephants! The tent is filled with the Hunt Bros. herd of seven performing pachyderms, one of the fastest working and most unusual elephant acts in the circus world.

Ring 1	Ring 3
Four baby elephants	Dolly, Jewel and Blanche presented by Capt. Roy Bush	presented by Capt. Eddy

DISPLAY NO. 23 Grand finale! It's all out and all over! Be sure to stay to see TANIT IKAO in the concert.

Program Subject to Change Without Notice

Patrons such as doctors and others who expect to be called during the performance should leave their seat location at the main entrance.

All articles found should be left at the main ticket office and any articles lost should be inquired for at that location.