

1988 ALL AMERICAN CIRCUS

Producer-Director _____ John Jordan
Announcer _____ David Maas

|                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                   |
|------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|
|                  | PROGRAM                                                                                                                                                                                       |                   |
|                  | Ring 2                                                                                                                                                                                        | Ring 3     |
|                  | Display 1THE NATIONAL ANTHEM                                                                                                                                                              |                   |
|                  | Display 2Our Circus Overture Accompanied By A Brilliant Dazzling Display Of Lights Sprinkling Stardust Throughout The ArenaDuring Our Circus Stars On Parade                          |                   |
|                  | Display 3—CHRIS' WILD ANIMALSIn The Steel Cage Filled With Ferocious Jungle Bred Beasts The Trainer Maintains Complete Mastery Over The MostUnpredictable Wild Animals Ever Presented |                   |
|                  | Display 4—DIVE OF DEATHWatch This Artist As He Dazzlingly Demonstrates The Outer Limits Of Skill & Daring Comedy                                                                          |                   |
|                  | Display 5Three Rings Of Exciting Circus Talent                                                                                                                                            |                   |
| HANSIENIS | SHANE                                                                                                                                                                                         | TINA       |
|                  | Display 6—CIRCUS CLOWNSWelcome Our Garrulous Gremlins Of Giggles                                                                                                                          |                   |
|                  | Display 7High In The Air An Extravaganza Of Majestic Maneuvers                                                                                                                            |                   |
| MISS NOBY | DELISA                                                                                                                                                                                        | CARRIE     |
|                  | Display 8—JOE'S CAMELSPresenting A Clever Clan Of Capricious Camels                                                                                                                       |                   |
|                  | Display 9—JORGE'S COMEDY CARDirect From The Motor Capital Of The World Our Own Backyard Mechanic                                                                                          |                   |
|                  | Display 10—JORDANNAIRES WHEEL OF INFINITYA Daring Death-Defying Feature Act—The Whirling Wheel                                                                                            |                   |
|                  | Display 11—JOHN &amp; SHANEWatch As This Dup Dazzling Demonstrates The Astonishing Art Of Teeterboard Acrobats Redefining The OuterLimits Of Skill & Daring                           |                   |
|                  | Display 12—CIRCUS CLOWNSA Festival Of Frantic Frivolity                                                                                                                                   |                   |
|                  | Display 13—ZAMPERLA'S DOGSA Delightful Combination Of Delectable Canine Beauty And Artistry                                                                                               |                   |
|                  | Display 14—JORDAN'S GLOBE OF DEATHThe Ultimate In Circus Thrills, Watch As These Motorcycles Shoot Around In The Globe At Neckbreaking Speeds                                             |                   |
|                  | —INTERMISSION—                                                                                                                                                                                       |                   |
|                  | Display 15—OBANDO DUOExhilarating Equilibristic Exhibition On A Taut Thin Strand High In The Air                                                                                          |                   |
|                  | Display 16—RARATONGA'S EXOTIC JUNGLE LEOPARDSBeautiful Leopards Uncaged And Leashed Perform An Act Of Beauty                                                                              |                   |
|                  | Display 17—FRANK &amp; ESTRELETAHigh In The Air An Extravaganza Of Majestic Maneuvers On The Aerial Pirch                                                                                 |                   |
|                  | Display 18—GEORGE CARDEN'S PONIESHandsome Horsemanship With Excellent Equestrians Exhibiting Their Educated Equines                                                                       |                   |
| NAPOLEAN  |                                                                                                                                                                                                      | TINA       |
|                  | Display 19—CIRCUS CLOWNSRiotous Rendition Of Nonsense                                                                                                                                     |                   |
|                  | Display 20—ROUND ROBINWatch As This Trio Of Aerialists Perform High In The Air Doing Eye Catching, Fast Flying, Death-Defying Aerial Maneuvers                                            |                   |
|                  | Display 21—THE FRANCARROSThree Rings Of Mesmerizing Master Of Manipulation                                                                                                                |                   |
| DIANE     |                                                                                                                                                                                                      | MISS JANIE |
|                  | Display 22—GEORGE CARDEN'S ELEPHANTSTons Of Circus Fun With These Ponderous Performing Pachyderms                                                                                         |                   |
|                  | Display 23—ADELE &amp; GORYTruly Beauty & The Beast -- Is It Or Is It Not A Gorilla?                                                                                                      |                   |
|                  | Display 24—CAPTAIN CIRCUSDisregarding Danger A Dauntless Daredevil Shoots Across The Arena From A Cannon In A Fearless Feat Of Bravery                                                    |                   |

ALL-AMERICAN CIRCUS
P.O. BOX 4787
ANAHEIM, CA 92803