

DAILEY BROS. THREE RING CIRCUS

General Offices and Quarters, Gonzales, Texas.

MR. AND MRS. B. C. DAVENPORT, OWNERS.

(The Management reserves the right to alter this program when necessary. An hour's time is given patrons before the performance begins in which to inspect the huge menagerie with it's almost priceless collection of wild animals from every corner of the globe.

R. M. Harvey,
GENERAL AGENT

Howard Saunders
PUBLIC RELATIONS

Bertha Drane
MAIL AGENT

Chas. Cohn
ASST. MANAGER

Billie Rose
PRESS REPRESENTATIVE

Jim Fay
PERSONNEL DIRECTOR

Ralph Noble
SUPERINTENDENT

Mitt Carl
STEWART

Raymond Frievogal
SUPT. ELEPHANTS

Charlie White
LEGAL ADJUSTER

Tom Heney
CONTRACTING AGENT

Steve Brody
ELECTRICAL SUPT.

Milt Robbins
MGR. SIDE SHOW

Harry Brown
24 HOUR MAN

Jos. Rossi
MUSICAL DIRECTOR

Jack Knight
SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE

Leo Snyder
EQUESTRIAN DIRECTOR

Captain Douglas
SUPT. MENAGERIE

RING 1

RING 2

RING 3

DISPLAY NO. 1—Dailey Bros. Circus introduces their circus performance with the most impressive and magnificent inaugural pageant in Kaleidoscopic Splendor—entitled:

FLAGS OF ALL NATIONS

Preceded by a glittering array of unsurpassed Grandeur. A lavishly bejewelled maze of countless participants from every one of the United Nations. Conceived and staged by Leo Snyder. Musical arrangements by Joseph Rossi. Costumes from Dailey Bros. own designing studio. Electrical effects by Steve Brody. Augmented with song by Dolores Martinez and Latin American chiquitas

DISPLAY NO. 2— Presenting "Hank"—the world's only hula-hula dancing Elephant.

DISPLAY NO. 3—The Merry Men of Momus. Dailey Bros. Clowns under the direction of the producing clown—
JEFF MURPHREES

DISPLAY NO. 4—Riding Monkeys.

DISPLAY NO. 5—

Mildred Pyle
Single Traps

Si Kitchie Duo
Carrying Perch

Hazel LaBuef
Single Traps

DISPLAY NO. 6—

Red's
Bears

Tommy's
Dogs

Jeff's
Dogs

DISPLAY NO. 7—The Congress of Clowns in their side-splitting burlesque of the World's Series.

DISPLAY NO. 8—Presenting the world's only trained male bull elephant—Nemo— generally conceded to be the greatest single elephant act of all time. Presented by Raymond Frievogal

DISPLAY NO. 9—Dailey Bros. Aerial Ballet. Skill and Beauty aloft by the Queens of the Air in hazardous feats on the Spanish Web and Ladders.

DISPLAY NO. 10—Once again the Clowns take over the Hippodrome track for an amusing walk-a-round burlesquing topics of the day.

DISPLAY NO. 11—

Wire
Pina Medel

Wire
Acevedo Sisters

Wire
Senor Arturo Acevedo

DISPLAY NO. 12—Senor Francisco, Slide-For-Life.

RING 1

RING 2

RING 3

DISPLAY NO. 13—DAILEY BROS. CIRCUS HAS THE HONOR AND PRIVILEGE OF PRESENTING IN THE CENTER RING—THE YOUNGEST ELEPHANT TRAINER IN ALL THIS WORLD— 14-YEAR-OLD NORMA DAVENPORT AND HER HERD OF DANCING AND BASEBALL PLAYING ELEPHANTS.

DISPLAY NO. 14 Introducing some of the prize winning cowboy champions from American and Mexican Rodeos who will appear with that star of rodeo and screen

FREDDY FREDRICKS

—A thrilling exhibition immediately after the circus performance.

DISPLAY NO. 15

The Acevedos
Juggling

Francisco
Traps

Miquel Medel
Juggling

DISPLAY NO. 16— Freddy Fredricks

Introducing Dailey Bros.' famous Liberty horses. Three groups of beautiful spotted and Palamino stallions presented simultaneously in three rings.

Hazel King

Bert Wallace

DISPLAY NO. 17—The Hippodrome Track is surrendered to Dailey Bros. Army of Clowns to bring you mirth making tomfoolery and antics.

DISPLAY NO. 18—From the Land of Batan, we present that Filipino Marvel of the Art of Balance—
MR. SI KITCHIE— in seemingly unbelievable balancing feats on the high trapeze.

DISPLAY NO. 19—In the rings and on the track the outstanding horsemen and horsewomen of America, in the most notable display of high school equestrianism ever presented and featuring the greatest and most daring riders of waltzing, rearing and dancing horses in all the world.

Bert Wallace
Mildred Pyle
Hazel King
Dorothy Brown

Jenette Wallace
Tommy O'Brien
Freddy Fredricks
Duke Keller

Hazel LaBuef
Norma Davenport
Catherine Barney

DISPLAY NO. 20—In the center ring presenting a feature extraordinary in Hank the only elephant in all the world ever trained to balance and roll a barrel from pedestal to pedestal across the ring.

DISPLAY NO. 21—Senor Francisco and Senora Ramona in their super-human Iron Jaw act.

DISPLAY NO. 22—Dailey Bros. again presents the idol of the West—Freddy Fredricks and his company of internationally famous rodeo stars.

DISPLAY NO. 23—Long Mount on Hippodrome Track by Dailey Brothers' herd of elephants.

Remain And See Our Wild West
RODEO - SHOW